

Focus on Grocery Food

contributing 24% to overall revenue

Grocery foods account for the highest revenue (€136,311.25) out of the total revenue (€570,581.10). Analysis has been conducted to identify the top-selling products, weekly trends and peak days, characteristics of shoppers, and recommendations to boost revenue.

Top 10 Selling Products:

Weekly & Peak Day Analysis:

Peak day: Saturday Revenue: €27,658.53

Grocery food sales are high throughout the week, however, they peak on Saturday closely followed by Thursday and Friday.

Shopper Profile:

- 59% are Females
- 36-50 age group
- Household size: 1
- No children

Basket Findings:

Association rule mining was done to identify the relation between the different products purchased.

Purchase patterns identified:

- Customers who bought pasta are 3 times more likely to buy spaghetti.
- Customers who bought condensed milk are twice as likely to buy instant coffee.
- 8.16% of customers who bought special packed bread (limited duration) also bought crumpets.

Recommendations to Boost Revenue:

Marketing:

- Items like condensed milk and instant coffee can be marketed as complementary products.

Bundles:

- Pair pasta and spaghetti in a combo to boost sales.
- Create a bundle of Greek coffee and milk powder.

Placement:

- Keep sweet and savoury base (pastry making) and milk powder in the same section.
- Similarly, place plain flour and milk powder side by side.

Inventory:

- Stock inventory on Wednesday, as sales pick up on Thursday and peak on Saturday.